 - b. Physicals went well and many players showed up on Saturday, October 30. Players cannot try out without a physical. Try to get your physicals in by November 15.
 - c. Meet the Team Night- will be held on Tuesday, December 7 at 6:45 p.m. and will probably include a pizza party. Each team will be introduced (middle school through high school).
- III. Booster Club Update
 - a. Team Events
 - i. Parkland CARES Pantry was held on Saturday, October 9. The event went well, good attendance
 - ii. The Sanctuary Haafsville will be held on Saturday, November 13. Limited space – Email will be sent out requesting donations for cats and dogs.
 - b. Snack Stand- Melissa/Shawn to meet, Melissa will be heading up the snack stand and we are looking for a co-chair to help with the snack stand. Will try to get the sign up genius for the “Meet the Team Night.” Also, need to confirm the COVID protocols with food, etc.

- c. Senior Night- gifts/date/program- Katie Frank will take the lead. The game will probably be Friday, January 28th against William Allen. Shawn will send the list to Katie for the seniors.
 - d. Youth Night – Looks like it can happen but coach will confirm with the school.
 - e. “Shirt Off Your Back”- Seniors will pick a special person that was a mentor to them. The special person will attend the game and the person will receive a tee shirt with their name on the back. Booster Club will pay for the shirts. Bill Wilkinson ordered the shirts. In the past, was held pre-game and the senior walks out with the mentor and someone reads the essay. Targeting, Tuesday, January 11.
 - f. Lafayette/Holy Cross game – conflict with team practice on Wednesday, January 5 at 6 pm. Coach will see if the practice time can be moved to participate in the game. Kim will get tickets from Lafayette.
 - g. PCFLV – Trying to find a school to participate and are exploring to do it against Emmaus.
 - h. Camelot for Kids Nazareth game with Melissa and Diane volunteered to take the lead on. We play Nazareth on December 17.
